

NEGOTIATIONS UPDATE

The Company has request a postponement of the negotiations scheduled for the week of June 7th. With the arrival of the new CEO there are many meetings and behind the scenes discussions and decisions being made as to the company direction. We understand that with a change of leadership, a period of adjustment is taking place between the new CEO and management.

We will confer with the company and schedule future dates in the upcoming weeks.

